Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

Weekly Activities and Status Report for DD/ICS--12 October

CIPC Organizational Activities

- The CIPC Committee meeting of 11 October appears to have went well and the Narcotics Report faired equally well.

- With the exception of some six recommendations and some minor problems scattered throughout the report, the study was well received by the members.
- The study was remanded to the Working Group to accommodate these concerns.
- However, the legal aspect of Intelligence Community support to the law enforcement community continues to be the primary area of concern.
- Assuming the report is adjusted to accommodate the Committee's concerns and the Working Group Subpanel completes its report on "Use of Classified Information in Drug Enforcement" in a timely manner, we will place this subject on the agenda for the next meeting, tentatively scheduled for 14 November.

- We have received a final proof copy of the Cruise Missile Study from the printer; however, the report still needs some fine tuning prior to sending it to the DCI. Hopefully, we can accomplish the fine tuning process this week.

- [] CIA CT, reported to SOVA this week for her permanent assignment. She will be working the Soviet trade with the major industrial countries account. During her three-month tenure on this staff she contributed significantly; she will be missed.

- The main body of the Narcotics Report was disseminated to the CIPC principals on 5 October; the report plus the Executive Summary were distributed to the Working Group members on 6 October. Feedback to date from the members generally has been predictable.

- On 7 October, [] attended a meeting chaired by Stan Moskowicz, NIO/USSR-EE, on the magnitude of civil unrest in the USSR. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the level of knowledge about the topic, and how to improve collection, processing and analysis of the information on the topic. The NIO has requested two reports prior to the next meeting in late October.
